Since last we spoke...

The 7th grade has finished Edgar Allen Poe's heart-stopping story The Tell-Tale Heart and have started their effort to identify the mysterious spy in Animal Farm. In grammar, we are moving into the next chapter and vocabulary is moving along with the addition now of synonyms and antonyms will be coming soon!

THE POW!ER
OF WORDS

The 8th grade is wrapping up the classic To Kill A Mockingbird and will be working on assorted short stories next. Grammar and vocabulary are progressing as well, as students are beginning to prepare for the HSPT entrance exam in a few weeks.

It is a busy time for sure. I hope you had a good Thanksgiving.

Until we meet again...
