Academic Notes:

Math: We will study geometry and continue improving our multiplication, division and problem-solving skills.

Social Studies: We continue to study the regions and geography of California.

Science: The students will be working on their habitat projects and a research paper (in computer class) of an animal of their choice.

Literature: We will integrate stories with our social studies and science lessons and compare and contrast fairy tales this month.

Religion: We continue our study of Lent, the Triduum and the Easter season combining readings from the Bible and our "Resurrection Egg" project/activity.

Blessings,
Mrs. Connell
