Reflection Heading into Christmas

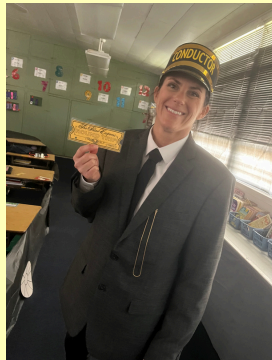

Advent is upon us and I wanted to take the time to reflect on my short six months at Holy Trinity. I am beyond blessed to be part of this community that I proudly call home. I am becoming nostalgic as I prepare for the birth of my third baby in January. I am reminded how blessed I am with the gift of children and how wonderful it is to be shown a smile or given a hug by your children at school. This week I was able to watch K-2 learn archery with KidoKinetics and see the joy on their face when their shot went farther the second time. I was able to see the wonder and awe on every fourth-grade face when conductor Mrs. Vickery welcomed them onto the Polar Express. I laughed when I saw the mischief the classroom elves were getting into each morning. I am in awe of the toy donations and generous hearts from all my students. Holy Trinity is not simply a place for education, but it is a home. We are a family. This Advent, I am appreciative for all of the support and prayers. I am appreciative not just for my family of (soon to be) five, but for my Holy Trinity family. Thank you!
